

Inupiat Experience with the Oil and Gas Industry in Alaska & BC's North Coast Tanker Moratorium

Join us for a free public presentation and discussion

THIS FRIDAY (TONIGHT!)
November 2, 2007
Skidegate

Haida Heritage Centre at
Kaay Llnagaay, Classroom 1
Doors open 7:00 pm
Presentation starts 7:30 pm

THIS SATURDAY
November 3, 2007
Old Massett

Canoe Peoples House
(Christian White's Longhouse)
Doors open 7:00 pm
Presentation starts 7:30 pm

Inupiat speakers Rosemary Ahtuanguaruak and Mae Masuleak from the community of Nuisquit on Alaska's North Slope will share their experiences with oil and gas industrialization in their community and effects on their livelihoods.

West Coast Environmental Law will present an overview and discussion of the North Coast oil tanker traffic moratorium, the laws and regulations in BC that govern it, and your rights under the law.

Learn how West Coast's Environmental Dispute Resolution Fund can provide you with legal help to resolve environmental conflicts in BC.

For more information, contact:

West Coast Environmental Law at 1.800.330.9235 or www.wcel.org
Irene Bruce, Haida Fisheries Program Skidegate office at 250.559.8945
Melody Stanley, Haida Fisheries Program Old Massett office at 250.626.3302
Jody Bissett, World Wildlife Fund Canada at 250.559.4703
Maggie Stronge, Gwaii Haanas at 250.559.6317

